

Yes. The Pa Land Trust Association (PaLTA) has developed a model document that the Linn Conservancy uses to prepare these agreements. Remember that the model is subject to negotiation between the land owner and land trust representatives. The goal is to define terms that are suitable to all parties. The model helps us arrive at terms mutually agreeable to the owner and land trust. Visit the PaLTA website (www.conserveland.org) and search “model conservation easement document.”